ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

During the year 1904 there were 28 marriages, 55 births, and 56 deaths in Middlebury.

The E. B. Ellis Granite Co. has recently issued notice that it has registered the trade mark "Bethel White Granite" under the laws of the state of Vermont and of Illinois and other companies are forbidden to use this name.

There were 72 cases of contagious diseases reported to Health Officer E. B. Moore of Rutland city, during January. These included 18 of scarlet fever, 32 of mumps, 11 of whooping cough, 6 of German measles, 3 of erysipelas, and 1 each of typhoid fever and measles. Twenty-two deaths occurred in the city during the month.

The baseball team of the University of Vermont, Burlington, has been successful in arranging a game with Yale, to be played at New Haven, on one of Yale's best dates, May 23. This arrangement is highly satisfactory to all the collegians, also their friends, as it is eight years since these two colleges have met on the diamond. No trouble has existed between either party, but each time the university has failed to get in on Yale's schedule.

F. B. Tibbitts has resigned his position as general secretary of the Rutland Young Men's Christian Association to take up a similar position with the Wilmington, Del. association. His resignation will take effect March 1. When Mr. Tibbitts took the secretaryship of the local association two years ago it was over $1,200 in debt. With the unpaid pledges on hand and subscriptions in sight the association will close the fiscal year, May 1, free from debt. The state committee will probably be called on to assist in securing a new secretary.

Archie McKenzie of Corinth, aged 19 years, died of hemorrhage of the lungs Wednesday, Jan. 25, in the night. He ate supper and went to bed as well as he had been for some time, but during the night his parents heard a noise upstairs and on going up there they found him out of bed and in a dying condition. He expired in a few moments. He had been in poor health for several years and his parents moved to Corinth three years ago from Worcester, Mass., with the hope that the country air would benefit him, but it was of no avail. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKenzie, formerly of Scotland. Burial was held on Sunday at his home, Rev. W. F. Harding officiating. Burial was at the corner. His sisters, Mary, of West Upton and Mrs. Eliza Aldrich, of Worcester, Mass., were present.

A Long Time Merchant.

Fifty years ago Tuesday, or January 31, 1855, A. R. Tewksbury came from New Boston, N. H., with his father, the late A. W. Tewksbury, and occupied a general merchandise store in Randolph, whose subsequent growth and prosperity was due in a large measure to the influence and extensive business interests of this firm. They were joined in March by M. A. Tewksbury, who also became a member of the company with his father and brother. The old store building, now occupied as a dwelling by F. H. Keelson on South Main street, was soon outgrown and removed to make room for the brick block, in which the Tewksbury stores are still located. The 1855 contemporaries of the brothers still living here are Willard Gay, of the firm of Spaulding & Gay, hardware merchants, in a store that was burned on the site of the present DuBois & Gay block; Elijah Edson, of the firm of Badger, Edson & Smith, having a general store in the old part of the village on Central street and occupying the brick building that is now known as the "Bee-hive" tenement house; and J. W. Hale, who clerked then for Spaulding & Gay. All these, though residents of the village, have been out of active affairs for several years, while the Tewksburys still continue in the business with whose establishment they were identified a half century ago.

Auto For War Service in Manchuria. What is said to be the first automobile to be used in actual war service will shortly be sent by the Russian military authorities to Manchuria, where it will be used to transport war materials and provisions, says the New York Herald. It is a thirty-six horsepower car of French manufacture, on which a large dynamo has been placed, which furnishes the power to the electric motors of five trailers. Each of these can carry a load of 1,700 pounds, and the train can be driven at a speed averaging ten miles an hour.

Eggs. Eggs should never be eaten the same day as laid, for they have not become solidified, but are at their best the second day.

Two of a Kind.

"Well, isn't it awful in these restaurants? Some one got away with my hat and left me this!"
"Well, isn't it? Some one got mine too!"—Browning's Magazine.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that is "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasite germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busy at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

YELLS IN LAUNDRY LINEN.

Baby Taken in Its Basket by Mistake For Family Washing.

Many persons living in Winsted, Conn., have a custom of putting their babies out of doors to sleep, thinking the air makes them stronger and healthier, says the New York World.

Edmund Angell, employed by a steam laundry, stopped his horse in front of St. James' rectory, on Main street, the other morning to collect the family washing of the Rev. S. Wolcott Lindsey.

Seeing a covered basket on the front veranda and thinking it contained soiled linen for the laundry, young Angell picked it up, placed it in the sleigh with the other washing and started on.

He had not gone far, however, before he heard a yelling resembling a baby's cries. The horse was stopped, and the driver quickly discovered that the cries were human and came from the basket he had taken from the rectory's porch.

Raising the soft blankets which covered the basket, Angell found the infant son of the Rev. Mr. Lindsey.

He hastened back to the rectory with the basket containing John Chamney Wolcott Lindsey and exchanged it for the basket with the washing.

Nearly Forty Rabbits at One Shot.

The killing of thirty-nine jack rabbits at one shot by a woman who pointed a gun barrel through her kitchen window, winning a barrel of Baldwin apples as a wager from her husband, is a story that is causing interest at Miller, S. D., says a dispatch from that place. It was during a recent deep snow. The woman sprinkled a bushel of oats in a path in range of the kitchen window. The rabbits gathered by the score until there was a long row of them eating oats by the bright moonlight. The woman fired, and her aim was accurate. The dead rabbits, it is said, weighed 300 pounds. The woman sold enough rabbits to buy herself a new bone cutter and then cut up the remainder and fed them to her flock of chickens, which means lots of eggs, for nothing, it is said, puts a hen in the mood of breaking the egg trust quicker than crushed jack rabbit.

Down a Big Hill on a Log.

Two lumbermen made a descent of 500 feet in four minutes on a log in Sinnemahoning district, Pennsylvania, a few days ago on the strength of a banter, says the New York Globe. The ride was made with the understanding that the "pursue" should be used for the purchase of a barrel of flour and a ham for a widow, whose husband, a lumberman, had recently died of typhoid fever.

Stables in Japan. In Japan horses are backed into their stalls; then the door is closed at the head, which has a grain and hay rack conveniently constructed, to which the animal is secured.

Grave Trouble Unforeseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that, when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as did Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me. Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store, Barre, Vt., at 50c per bottle."

The Grateful Men.

Hens are not noted for their gratitude, but it has been proved time and again that if properly housed and fed they will return a handsome profit to the poultryman. Mrs. H. F. Avery, Coopers Mills, Me., tells how she makes money on poultry. "I have used 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food' for two or three years and sold some to my friends. They like it very much as an egg producer. I should not know how to get along without it, for my hens pay it all back and give me a good profit besides, and I can conscientiously recommend it to all who want poultry to pay."

ESTATE OF JOSEPH BERGERON.

STATE OF VERMONT. In Probate Court, District of Washington, ss. I, held in Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 27th day of January, A. D. 1905.
Rebecca E. Bergeron, Administratrix, with the will annexed, of the estate of Joseph Bergeron, late of the Town of Barre, in said District, deceased, presents her administration account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said deceased. Whereupon it is ordered by said Court that said account and said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office in said Montpelier, on the 15th day of February, A. D. 1905, for hearing and decision thereon. And it is further ordered that notice hereof be given to all persons interested by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Barre Times, a newspaper published at the City of Barre, in this State, previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they may have, why said account should not be allowed and such decree made.
By the Court, Attest
HIRSH CARLETON, Judge.
